

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

A premier group of over 215 private sector organizations who share a commitment to economic and social development, open markets, rule of law, and democracy in the region. Membership benefits extend to all company employees.

Exclusive invitations to all private programs with world leaders

Preferred invitations for select senior executives to off-the-record, private meetings with government officials, business, and cultural leaders

Preferential seating at select in-person programs, events and conferences

Preferred position on Q&A sessions in virtual programs

Special briefings with senior COA team and assistance in establishing contacts to further business interests

Invitations to over 200 private, member only programs throughout the Western Hemisphere

Opportunity to sponsor select AS/COA programs, events, and conferences

Opportunity to serve as moderator, speaker, or panelist in relevant programs, if appropriate

Member-rate invitations to Annual Washington Conference held at the U.S. State Department and the Symposium & BRAVO Business Awards in Miami

Member company listing in AS/COA Annual Report, website, and collateral materials

Complimentary admission for senior-level executives to AS VIP gallery openings and events

Print subscriptions of Americas Quarterly and exclusive member rates for advertising and sponsored content

Memberships in Young Professionals of the Americas (YPA) initiative for rising leaders, per chapter

Elite $30,000/year	Standard $15,000/year
--------------------------------------	---

5

6

3

3